

Share skills in your classroom!

DIY is a platform for students to discover new skills and share what they make and do with a global community. Educators everywhere are using DIY to explore project-based learning and introduce collaboration into their classroom. Blend the DIY Skills platform into your core curriculum, or simply let your students explore new subjects while honing their creative skills.

diy.org

Share skills in your classroom!

DIY is a platform for students to discover new skills and share what they make and do with a global community. Educators everywhere are using DIY to explore project-based learning and introduce collaboration into their classroom. Blend the DIY Skills platform into your core curriculum, or simply let your students explore new subjects while honing their creative skills.

diy.org